BACKGROUND

1. This is an action for damages and injunctive relief relating to Defendants theft, alteration, and unauthorized publication of sexually suggestive images of Plaintiffs, each of whom are world renowned professional models, in order to promote their strip clubs, Diamond Club Gentleman’s Cabaret (“Diamond Club”), two (2) Lace Gentlemen’s Clubs (hereinafter referred to as “Lace Manhattan” and “Lace West Nyack”), and three (3) Stiletto Palace Gentleman’s Clubs (hereinafter referred to as “Stiletto Atlantic City”, “Stiletto Nanuet”, and “Stiletto Carlstadt”, and collectively as the “Stiletto Clubs). (Each of the five strip clubs listed above may collectively be referred to herein as the “Clubs”).

2. As detailed below, Defendants theft and unauthorized use of Plaintiffs’ images, photos and likenesses (collectively, “Images”) constitutes, at minimum: a) violation of section 43 of the Lanham Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1125(a)(1), which prohibits false or misleading use of a person’s image for purposes of advertising; b) violation of New York Civil Rights Law §§ 50-51, which protects a person’s right to privacy and publicity; c) violation of New York’s Deceptive Trade Practices Act (New York G.B.L. §349) which prohibits deceptive business practices; d) defamation, and; e) various common law torts.

3. Although each of the Clubs is owned by a separate corporate entity, the Clubs operate as a single enterprise that, inter alia, and as specified below, shares Images of models for purposes of advertising the Clubs on traditional and social media, have the same management, and/or advertise together online. Indeed, Defendants interconnected advertising, branding, internet and social media presence is underscored by the fact that each of the Clubs represent and hold themselves out to be part of “Lace Clubs” and are all advertised on the website www.laceclubs.com (the “Lace Clubs Website”). A true and correct copy of homepage for the Lace Clubs Website is annexed hereto as Exhibit A.

4. In addition to the actual, punitive and exemplary damages set forth below, Plaintiffs likewise seek an Order from this Court permanently enjoining Defendants from using their Images to promote any of the Clubs, via any medium.

JURISDICTION & VENUE

217. As detailed throughout this Complaint, Defendants have published altered Images of Plaintiffs in order to promote their Clubs to the general public and potential clientele.

218. Defendants publication of said Images constitutes a representation that Plaintiffs was either employed by one or more of the Clubs, that they endorsed one or more of the Clubs, or that they had some affiliation with one or more of the Clubs.

219. None of these representations were true.

220. In publishing Plaintiffs' altered Images, it was Defendants' intention to create a false impression to the general public that Plaintiffs were strippers working at the Clubs, or endorsed the Clubs.

221. Defendants were at least negligent in publishing Plaintiffs' Images because they knew, or should have known, that Plaintiffs were not employed by the Clubs, had no affiliation with the Clubs, had not consented to the use of their Images, and had not been compensated for the use of their Images.

222. In the alternative, Defendants published the Images of Plaintiffs with actual malice because they knew that Plaintiffs were not employed by the Clubs, had no affiliation with the Clubs, had not consented to the use of their Images, and had not been compensated for the use of their Images.

223. Despite Defendants' knowledge and awareness of these facts, they nevertheless made the decision to publish Plaintiffs' Images to attract clientele and generate revenue for themselves.

224. Defendants' publication of Plaintiffs' Images constitutes defamation under New York law because said publication falsely accuses Plaintiff of having acted in a manner – i.e., working as a stripper and/or endorsing a strip club - which would subject each Plaintiff to hatred, shame, obloquy, contumely, odium, contempt, ridicule, aversion, ostracism, degradation, or disgrace, and/or could induce an evil opinion of Plaintiffs in the minds of right-thinking persons, and/or could deprive each Plaintiff of confidence and friendly intercourse in society.

225. Defendants' publication of Plaintiffs' Images likewise constitutes defamation per se under New York law because said publication would tend to injure each Plaintiff in her trade, business, and profession as a professional model.

226. This is because any company or brand that sought to hire any of the Plaintiffs as a company or brand representative would be less likely to do so upon learning that she was a professional stripper and/or promoting as strip club, an inference which Defendants' publication of the Images support.

227. Defendants' publication of Plaintiffs' Images likewise constitutes defamation per se under New York law because, insofar as said publication falsely portrays each of the Plaintiffs as a stripper, it imputes unchastity to her.

228. Defendants' publication of Plaintiffs' Image' caused Plaintiffs to suffer damages in an amount to be determined at trial, but in all events in an amount not less than seventy five thousand ($75,000), exclusive of punitive and exemplary damages.

231. Said failure was the proximate cause of the harm Plaintiffs suffered when their Images were published without their authorization.

232. In the alternative, and upon information and belief, although Defendants promulgated policies and procedures concerning the misappropriation of Images, Defendants nevertheless negligently failed to enforce those policies, communicate them to employees, and/or supervise their employees in order to ensure that these policies, along with Federal and New York law, were not violated.

233. In addition, Defendants had a duty to refrain from appropriating the Images of those with whom it had not contracted, and had not paid.

234. Defendants violated said duty by its negligent hiring, screening, retaining, supervising, and/or training of its employees and agents.

238. By the conduct detailed above, Defendants converted Plaintiffs' property rights in their Images for their own use and financial gain Images for its own use and financial gain.

239. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conversion of Plaintiffs' Images, and publication of same, Plaintiffs have suffered damages in an amount to be determined at trial, but in all events in an amount not less than seventy five thousand ($75,000), exclusive of punitive and exemplary damages.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Unjust Enrichment)

240. Plaintiffs hereby repeat and realleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

243. Defendants' purpose in publishing Plaintiffs' Images was to benefit commercially due to their purported association with, employment of, and/or endorsement by Plaintiffs.

244. Upon information and belief, Defendants did in fact benefit commercially due to their unauthorized use of Plaintiffs' Images.

245. Defendants have been enriched by their unauthorized control over, and publication of, Plaintiffs' Image because said publication has assisted Defendants in attracting clientele to their Clubs.

246. Plaintiffs have not been compensated for Defendants' commercial exploitation of their Images, and thus any financial benefit which Defendants received due to said exploitation is unjust.

247. As such, Plaintiffs have been damaged in an amount to be determined at trial, but in all events in an amount not less than seventy five thousand ($75,000), exclusive of punitive and exemplary damages.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Quantum Meruit)

248. Plaintiffs hereby repeat and reallege each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

250. Companies and brands that choose to hire Plaintiffs compensate them for their appearances.

251. Although Defendants have availed themselves of the benefit of being associated with Plaintiffs, and making it appear to potential customers that Plaintiffs either work at their Club, or endorse their Club, Defendants have not compensated Plaintiffs.

252. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to reasonable compensation for the Clubs' unauthorized use of their Images.
